Old Business

Thanks to FOC for hosting our monthly meeting.

Introduction of Guests by Andi Cveukus.

Chad: Website refresh. He met with UPJ Students on 4/17 in regards to reviewing our website and providing recommendations. Drive membership and member interaction as well as organizational communication. Chad will share their recommendations with the organization.

Improve social media presence. Kim Volk discussed increasing facebook presence. Liking posts and RSVPing via the facebook event.

Chad, officers will be reaching out to old members that have not renewed.

New Business

Ideas for volunteering for community service projects. As an organization, community service and giving back to our community is part of our mission. Chad received a list from the SVDP soup kitchen as to items that they are in need of. They also provided some volunteer opportunities. Chad Kamler proposed EHBA organizing a team from the organization to volunteer to assist with the 8/4/2019 duck race. Melissa Gross, spoke and mentioned the celebrity portion of the duck race. They need people to be “celebrities”.

Spoke about booth opportunity. Possibly set up an EHBA group. Melissa Gross also suggested doing the “regatta float”. Roger Luther motioned that we participate in the Duck float. Kimberly Volk Second. No ney’s.

Chad asked for any additional suggestions on other group volunteer opportunities. Edward Porada mentioned the “group clean up/beautification project”. Picking up trash. Roger Luther will reach out to Richland Township in regards to the process to be able to do this.

New members noted they were looking for networking opportunity and the opportunity to learn and promote their own business.
